Silk Sale

A Tremendous Success

Hundreds of busy buyers gathered at the silk counter yesterday to enjoy the wonderful bargains there offered.

At one time practically our whole force of clerks was engaged in cutting silks to keep up with the demand.

TODAY there are bargains just as good. The stock has been rearranged and ADDITIONAL CLERKS engaged for the expected rush.

These prices speak for themselves and the goods live up to all expectations.

KUMALAE SQUELCHED

Kuhio Gives Recreant Republican a Hot Roasting.

(Special to Advertiser).

HILO, Sept. 2.—Home Rule rowdies, headed by Jonah Kumalae, who attempted to break up the big Republican ratification meeting here last night, were put to rout by Prince Kuhio. The Home Rulers were utterly vanquished by the impassioned speech of the Delegate. Incidentally, Kuhio's speech was the first gun of the campaign.

While the speechmaking was in progress, Kumalae and Poepe, covered with leis, arrived from one of the country districts where they had been working up Home Ruleism. Kumalae looked with scorn upon the speakers and then announced his intention of getting the crowd away and turning the affair into a Home Rule meeting. They pressed forward and came near T. McCants Stewart who was holding forth on the band stand. Kumalae and Poepe jibed and jeered until finally Stewart invited them to a joint debate. The Home Rulers then began firing questions at Stewart who was equal to the occasion. Finally Kumalae asked:

"What has Kuhio done in Washington for Hawaii?"

"I'll answer that," came a voice from the crowd, which was recognized as belonging to Prince Kuhio. The Delegate mounted the rostrum, and in answering and routing the Home Rulers, made the speech of his life. After making a few preliminary remarks, speaking entirely in Hawaiian, Kuhio said, in part:

"The work of the Home Rule party is to down everybody else. The Home Rulers as you see them here are vile-mouthed and selfish. Natives who have accepted of my hospitality do this to me. I have not come here to fight or get into trouble. My business here is to voice the sentiments of my party, and to go to Washington to ask Congress to give Hawaii something. If you Home Rulers, who say so many bad things about me, don't want to vote for me, you don't have to."

"I was taught Home Rule politics by Wilcox, my fellow countryman. The Home Rulers were victorious in the first campaign, and Kumalae was then a Republican. The Republicans have Roosevelt, the Democrats have Parker, and now you Home Rulers whom do you intend to have for President? (applause and laughter). I have run for office against the Home Rulers, not because it was a Hawaiian party, but because the party is not right and does not represent anything. Do you think I am going to do anything for you at Washington. No, I am a Republican and will do for the Republicans and Democrats, but nothing for you because you represent no good principle."

"When you Home Rulers go around on your campaign you call me names, but that does you no good." Kuhio then answered the charges made by the Home Rulers in Kohala that he had mistreated Morris Keohokale in Washington. Several people had been proposed to him as secretary but he gave Morris the chance because he was a Hawaiian and he was ambitious for him, but in Washington Morris had disgraced himself and the Hawaiian people by his conduct. Although Morris had received $100 a month from Uncle Sam, Kuhio said he had personally sent money out of his own pocket to Morris' wife because Morris spent all he had in carousing. He had gone to New York and Atlantic City, fallen in with disreputable companions, and he had supplied him with money on three occasions which had been spent recklessly. He had given him $90 to get to San Francisco but that was also spent in riotous living.

Poepe and Kumalae then charged Kuhio with attempting to destroy the Hawaiian language. Kuhio said he had heard that the Home Rulers were telling the natives this lie. On the contrary he had labored with Senators Foraker and Mitchell to have the Hawaiian language made equally official with English in court and legislative matters, but the Senators said it could not be. Only English could now be officially used. He tried to have it used thus for a term of twenty years and then pleaded for ten years only as he spoken, not written. For himself he was a Hawaiian and would do everything for his race. It was not his purpose to break down what was dear to him.

Poepe finally acknowledged that Kuhio was right. Kuhio said he was sure that the questioning all along had only been for the purpose of bull-dozing him.

Kuhio completed his speech amid cheers.

KALAU DID WORK.

Kalaauokalani Jr., son of the Home Rule leader, who is now one of the staunch young Republicans, arose and told why he became a Republican.

"Wilcox and Kalaauokalani had the honor in the Home Rule party, but I did the real work of organizing it while I was a Home Ruler. I did the hard work to keep the party up. I wrote the platforms, but largely at the suggestion of my elders, but even then my conscience pricked me because I knew things were put in the platform which were not right. I did not write the platform with my heart in it. All this matter of my connection with the Home Rule party is on record in the minutes. I came over to the Republican party and know I am in the right party, because my conscience is easy."

ZAMLOCH'S FAREWELL

Last Performance at the Orpheum Tonight.

A final farewell performance will be given this evening at the Orpheum by Zamloch as a wind-up of the Labor Day festivities. The program will be a holiday one in every respect and will be practically altogether new, as the magician has many tricks in reserve which this engagement has not called out and which will be given tonight.

Many of those who go to see Zamloch the younger pitch for the Elks this afternoon will doubtless watch Zamloch the elder in the evening. Honolulu holiday makers like to have some evening amusement with which to finish the day and Zamloch's clever entertainment is just the thing.

During his present engagement Zamloch has steadily grown in popularity and the theater has nightly held a big and interested crowd. He will always be welcomed to Hawaii by the many who have attended the performances and who firmly believe him to be the greatest living wizard.

Zamloch's rank stands high on account of his own inventive powers and the clever tricks he has evolved for himself. The rapping trick where a drum, a coin in a bowl, a wooden plate or a hat answers questions successfully, is a marvel cleverly worked out, and with the simple neatness of his basket trick would alone place him as the equal of Hermann and Houdini. Tonight's performance will be absolutely the last one.

MADAME GRISELDA'S ONLY APPEARANCE

Anyone who has a taste for music should not miss the song recital to be given at the Alexander Young Hotel by Madame Griselda tomorrow evening.

This will be the only opportunity to hear the famous artist in this city, as only one concert will be given before she departs for San Francisco. A program has been arranged that for the most part is entirely new to Honolulu and it is particularly well balanced.

The pavilion on the King street side of the Young Hotel has been chosen for its excellent acoustics and there will be ample room for a very large audience. Those who wish to avoid any chance of having to wait at the door can obtain tickets from Wall, Nichols Co. or Bergstrom Music Co. Otherwise the tickets can be obtained at the door. Tickets $1.00 each.

The numbers on the program are a reflex of Madame Griselda's artistic temperament, as they include songs by such composers as Saint-Saens, Schubert, Brahms, etc. She sings with an ease that is delightful and holds the attentions of her audience through every syllable.

Mr. Karl Busch will play a violin obligato to one of Madame Griselda's songs.

Said Pasha Rehearsal.

There will be a full rehearsal, with the orchestra, of "Said Pasha" this evening at the Hawaiian Opera House. The costumes which came on the Alameda will probably be distributed to the chorus and consequently a full attendance is desired.

Through the courtesy of the management to morrow evening's rehearsal will be omitted, owing to Madame Griselda's song recital at the Young Hotel.

The music of "Said Pasha" is tuneful, rollicking and delightful, and furnishes much pleasure for those who are singing it. The plot of the opera is exceedingly clever and with the topical hits that will be brought by "Sonny" Cunha and Guy Livingston the audience will be kept in a continual uproar of laughter.

The ticket sale opens at Wall, Nichols Co. on the 12th inst.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

THERAPION. The successful remedy used in the Continental Hospitals by Broussais, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combined all the virtues of the most powerful remedies. THERAPION No. 1 maintains its world-renowned and well-merited reputation for damage to the kidneys, pains in the back, and rheumatic ailments, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless. THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, purifies, purges, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of joints, gout, rheumatism, & all diseases of the blood. It has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, arsenic, &c., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates all poisonous matter from the body. THERAPION No. 3 for relaxation, sleeplessness, and all distressing occurrences of constipation, worry, overwork, &c. It possesses purifying power in restoring strength and vigor to those suffering from the enervating influences of long residence in hot, unhealthy climates. THERAPION is sold by the principal chemists and druggists throughout the world. Price in England, 2s. 6d. and 4s. 6d. In order to state which of the three numbers is required, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears on the British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty's Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.
